President's Address

We recently had another great Ask An Attorney event and appreciate all who joined us and provided questions. We especially appreciate Michael Stanger and Sean Monson for their help in answering questions and doing the research ahead of time to keep us informed.

We plan to continue to hold these events quarterly, so keep your questions coming!

We are excited to see you all this month at our annual half-day conference. We have an excellent lineup of speakers and hope you find the meeting informative.

Please save the date for our annual golf tournament on August 9. We use this event to fundraise for student scholarships. We appreciate your support in keeping this tradition alive.

See you all at the conference!

Half- Day Conference

We can't wait to see you all at our conference this year! NUHRA members attend for free and guests may join us for $75 ($50 if they are a member of another Utah SHRM chapter).

A big thanks to our sponsor, KeyBank! Please utilize the breaks to speak to our sponsor.

Come hungry! Breakfast will be served.

We'll first hear from Vance Checketts from Auticon. He will present on, Neurodiversity as a secret weapon in the war for Talent and DEI.

Following a break, we'll hear from Matt R. Vance of Mobrium. His presentation is titled, Cut through the noise: Finding workplace trends actually impacting your organization and what to do about it.

After another break is the moment you've all been waiting for! The fantastic Mark Tolman and Jesse Oakeson will present us with a legal update.

Following lunch and networking, we'll hear from Don Mendenhall of Ogden School District on Nurturing Collective Efficacy (CE) in order to reach organizational goals, to improve talent development and to retain great people: Examples from education.

We are so grateful for our speakers for all of their preparation – we can't wait for you to hear what they've prepared.

See you there!
